Read as many of these books as you can by Christmas 2006.

(Your school name)

Write your opinion of each book in this card as a reminder to yourself.

After Christmas, use the website to vote for your favourite book each week to stop it being voted off (just like Big Brother, X Factor etc).

Keep voting each week (if your favourite book has been eliminated, vote for your second favourite etc) until March when the winner will be announced.

Use the website to add your comments and reviews of the books
